

DISCONNECT

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God. . .

and that is what we are.

I John 3

I John 4

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.

Whoever does not love does not know
God, for God is love.

God showed how much he loved us
by sending his one and only Son into the world so that we might have eternal life through him.

I John 4

“So now I am giving you a new commandment: Love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other.” Jesus

“Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples.”

There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends.

I John 4

No one has ever seen God. But if we love each other, God lives in us, and his love is brought to full expression in us.

How does God's love abide in anyone who has the world's goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help?

I John 3

Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action.

I John 3

Such love has no fear, because perfect love expels all fear.

I John 4
