“As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that they turn from their ways and live”

Ezekiel 33:11

“Rejoicing in the death of another, however wicked, involves forgetting the depths of our own depravity and the astonishing reality of our own salvation.”

—Gideon Strauss

Isaiah 55 The Message

“I don’ t think the way you think.

The way you work isn’ t the way I work.”

God’ s Decree.

“For as the sky soars high above earth,

so the way I work surpasses the way you work, and the way I think is beyond the way you think.

Just as rain and snow descend from the skies and don’ t go back until they’ ve watered the earth,

Doing their work of making things grow and blossom,

producing seed for farmers and food for the hungry,

So will the words that come out of my mouth not come back empty-handed.

They’ ll do the work I sent them to do,

they’ ll complete the assignment I gave them.

Philippians 2:5–8

You must have the same attitude that Christ Jesus had. Though he was God, he did not think of equality with God as something to cling to. Instead, he gave up his divine privileges; he took the humble position of a slave and was born as a human being. When he appeared in human form, he humbled himself in obedience to God and died a criminal's death on a cross.

Because of Jesus, we do not get what WE deserve.

Should we be angry about this injustice?
